National Center for Education Statistics. For additional definitions dick on the following link: NCES Glossary (http://nces.ed.gov/ipeds/glossary/?text=1) SUDS(https://prod.flbog.net:4445/pls/apex/f?p=112:7) The number of students with a cumulative GPA less than a 2.0. At least a 2.0 is required to earn a degree from the university. The percentage of students with a cumulative GPA less than a 2.0; Effective Spring 2015 term code 201501 NC grading policy, where IFP courses can earn a grade of NC and NC grades are not calculated in the student GPA but NC credit hours do count towards calculating excess hours. The number of students who attend a fall semester and are still enrolled one year later. These students must also have a first year college GPA greater than or equal to 2.0 for undergraduate students and a first year college GPA greater than or equal to 3.0 for graduate students. The percentage of students who attend a fall semester and are still enrolled one year later. These students must also have a first year college GPA greater than or equal to 2.0 for undergraduate students and a first year college GPA greater than or equal to 3.0 for graduate students. The time period containing the academic sessions held during consecutive Summer, Fall, and Spring semesters. For example Summer 2008, Fall 2008, and Spring 2009 would make up the 2008 09 academic year. ACT, previously known as the American College Testing program, measures educational development and readiness to pursue science, and social studies. Student performance does not reflect innate ability and is influenced by a student's educational preparedness. (Federal) A standardized test administered by the College of high school. It is a competitor to the SAT. It consists of six components; there are five graded components (Writing, English, Math, Reading, and Science) and a Composite which is the total score of the other five components. (FAU)

This document provides definitions used in the IEA dashboards not provided in the definitions published by the Different definitions of applied have been used in reports at the university. Some reports include all applications regardless of the application status. The federal government excludes incomplete applications that have no admissions decision, but requires institutions to include all other applications in the count of applicants (including withdrawn applications). The official definition is as follows . . . An individual who has fulfilled the institution's requirements to be considered for admission (including payment or waiving of th18 Tm090 G 1 3232 0 612 792 reW*nBT/F2 10.9

(a BOG metric)
African American
Hispanic
A graduate student who has been formally admitted to a graduate program but who is not an advanced graduate student.
Article IX, Section 7 of the Florida Constitution was amended in 2002 to establish a statewide system of governance for all Florida public universities. As a result, the Florida Board of Governors was created in 2003 to operate, regulate, control, and be fully responsible for the management of the entire system consisting of eleven public Universities. Responsibilities include defining the distinctive mission of each university and ensuring the well planned coordination and operation of the system.
Count of students who are enrolled in at least one course taught at that particular campus. The campus numbers are not additive. Students may be counted more than once if they are taking classes at more than one location, unless the dashboard uses primary campus career, primary campus by term, or identifies students enrolled only at one campus.
A taxonomic coding scheme for secondary and postsecondary instructional programs. It is intended to facilitate the organization, collection, and reporting of program data using classifications that capture the majority of reportable data. The QP is the accepted federal government statistical standard on instructional program classifications and is used in a variety of education information surveys and databases.
Students are classified each semester according to the total earned credits accepted for transfer and/or completed at FAU. Includes Upper and Lower Division, as well as doctoral, medical, second baccalaureates, specialist, and non degree seeking students. At the undergraduate level credits F

 $tha(t)-3 \ hlaorit \ durncdie \ ctoe \ tn. \ Fo \ r \ (repo(ting)-3 \ tc)4(o)-2(\)] TJETQ0.00000912 \ 0 \ 612 \ 792 \ reW*nBT/F4 \ 10.98 \ Tf \ 1$

Department is decided based on the of enrollment.	dedared major and falls within the	college
. ,	n on his or her federal and some state income to port provided. A dependent student counts the notation to their own.
Students who fails to enroll at the un	iversity.
For reporting and fee purposes is now d	efined in s. 1009.24 FSas courses that are 80%	accessible to Faculty are positions assigned the principal responsibility of teaching, research, and public service activities or for administrative responsibility for functions directly related to the academic mission. This category includes Professor, Associate Professor, Assistant Professor and Instructor, including those with titles preceded by the term or any other designation. Also includes ional staff such as Counselor/Advisors and Librarians. Classification Codes 9178, 9186 and 9199. Pay Plan 22.

The group of students entering in the fall term established to tracking purposes. For the Graduation Rates component, this includes all students who enter an institution as full time, time degree or certificate seeking undergraduate students out in Residency is used for fee purposes and for Ethnic/Race determination.

Florida Resident (USA citizenship & Florida resident) Resident Alien, Florida Resident citizenship & Florida resident) Temporary Florida Resident (either USA or Non USA citizenship with Special residency status) Non Resident Alien citizenship & Non Florida residency) Resident Alien, Resident (No citizenship & Non Florida residency) Resident (USA citizenship resident) Indicates which county a stude legal address is located in.
 H Students who live in a resident hall are categorized as Yes while those who do not are No.
 The number of students who enroll for subsequent fall terms. A one year retention ræntion

The student's level of progress towards a degree. Freshmen and Sophomore students are categorized in the Lower Level; Junior and Senior students are categorized in the Upper Level; Graduate students are categorized in the Graduate Level.

A student who has earned less than 60 semester credit hours or those who have not yet passed the CLAST regardless of credit hours earned.

A student who has earned 60 or more semester credit hours and has passed the CLAST or has an Associate of Arts degree or is working toward an additional Baccalaureate degree.

A graduate student who has been formally admitted to a graduate program but who is not an advanced graduate student. Law students are included in the Grad I level.

A graduate student who has been formally admitted to a recognized Doctoral or Pos degree program who has accumulated 36 or more semester credit hours toward his or her degree program or has a Master's degree. Unclassified Student is a student not admitted to a degree program.

A measure which is equal to the product of the number of students enrolled in a course section times the number of credit hours for the section. Student Credit Hours for which the University receives funding by the state are called Fundable Student Credit Hours (FSCH). Not all SCH are for instance, credit hours produced by some fee waivers and by students enrolled for audit are not state fundable.

Hours generated by courses numbered between 1000 and 2999.

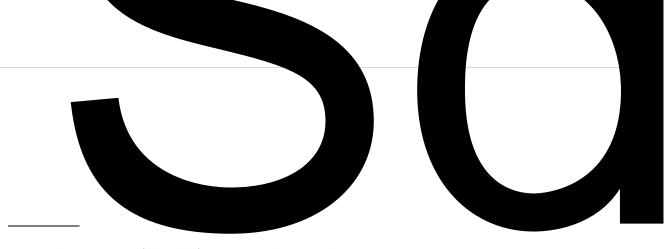

Hours generated by courses numbered between 3000 and 4999.

Hours generated by courses numbered between 5000 and 8999 and not Grad II courses.

Hours generated by courses numbered between 5000 and 8999 and studen classification level is Advanced Graduate and degree level sought is Advanced Specialist or Doctorate and student program category is an authorized Doctoral degree program.

A student entering the ins	titution known to have previously attended another postsecondary institution	and earned 12 or more credit hours after high school graduati
A student who	at a college or university while still enrolled in high sch is counted as a first	not as a transfer student.

A Center for Learning and Student Success (CLASS) program that provides free group tutoring by peer tutors in content area courses. Students are identified as having either used tutoring services or not.

Anee

federally funded

ime employment progra